WHARF AND WAVE.

William White will resume his first voyage since his marriage some weeks ago.

The cargo of the Welch has all been discharged, and she is now taking in ballast. Captain Drew will probably leave for San Francisco tomorrow or next day.

The new steamer for the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company was to have had her trial trip at San Francisco last week. She was booked to leave that port last Saturday and is expected to make the trip here in about ten days.

The New Hebrides correspondent of the Sydney Telegraph writes: "The cruise of H. M. S. Ringarooms through the New Hebrides was marked by an incident of a tragic character. Just before the ship went ashore, and whilst visiting Santo, in the north of the New Hebrides group, three men were lost when out bathing with a large party from the ship. Though especially warned not to bathe in the strong currents, little notice would appear to have been taken, with the above fatal result. The three bodies were recovered."

SAMOA.

A Scarcity of Rain-Trouble Brewing at Tutuilo.

APIA, Sept. 23.—Since writing by the Alameds, the rebel party have been steadily at work endeavoring to obtain a full meeting of their party at Lulumoega (the ruling town of Aana.) The king and government have sent word down to the Itu o Tane district on Savaii, warning them not to attend, and the consuls have caused it to be generally notified that any meetings at all, unless called by the govenrment, will be promptly suppressed.

Tofna, one of the head chiefs of the Atua party, has arrived at Tutulla, and is, it is said, endeavoring to get their assistance in case of it heir of the first of the Atua party, has arrived at Tutulla, and is, it is said, endeavoring to get their assistance in case of it heir or the Atua party. The proposed that the said of the Circuit of the First Circuit, and is, it is reported that the consultance of the circuit of the First Circuit, and is, it is said, endeavoring to get their assistance in case of it heir or the first of the first APIA, Sept. 23 .- Since writing by to get their assistance in case of it lulu, at 12 o'clock noon in pursuance of being required. It is reported that said order, sell to the highest bidder, all the Buzzard is to go up to Tutuila that shortly to restore order there, and it PIECE OR PARCEL OF LAND will, if necessary, also prevent any boats passing from that island to Upolu.

NO RAIN.

Within the memory of the proverbial oldest residents (native). there has only been one other such such spell of dry weather. For months there has been nothing but a few sun showers. The Vaisigano river is only a succession of pools. Stmr Iwalani, Freeman, for Kausi, at The cocoanuts, breadfruit, taro and bananas are suffering severely. It is expected, however, that when the Palolo season arrives next month the weather will break. Bye-the-bye, this year it is due on a Sunday morning, so that none of the natives except those belonging to the Roman Catholic church will be able to go out on the reef and catch their great annual dainty. It seems rather absurd of the London and Wesleyan Missions to prohibit their flocks, as the worm floats to the top of the water over certain places in the coral reef, just as the sun rises and all disappears in less than an hour.

DEPREDATIONS OF BRITISHERS' PROP-ERTY.

The apparently long delay that has already taken place in making inquiry into the destruction of Britishers' and others' property during the war, and also the uncertainty as to whether the usual shelving will not be indulged in, is exercising the minds of outside residents. Those in Apia seem to take rather a cool view of the matter, but it is quite within the bounds of possibility that their turn will come. I shall probably have a good deal of original correspondence to forward by mail steamer on this subject, which is of deep importance to those who have invested years of labor and all of their capital in preparing homes which are now practically valueless .- Correspondence Auckland Star.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Whitney this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies interested in temperance work are invited to be present.

TORE DOWN POSTERS.

The Election Proclamations in the Fifth District Destroyed.

The Inspector of Elections of the Fifth Precinct of the Fifth District, posted his notices a few days ago, and shortly afterwards found that nearly all of them had been torn down. For the benefit of other playfully-minded individuals, who might be inclined to pull down a few more of the posters, the following portions of the election law are

Any person who shall wilfully tear down, or destroy, or deface any elec-tion proclamation or any poster, or notice, or list of voters, or card of in-structions, or specimen ballot, issued or posted by authority of law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person convicted of a misde-meanor under the provisions hereof, position of purser on the W. G. shall be punished by a fine of not more Hall this trip. This will be his than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment at hard labor for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion
